

EDITORIAL POLICY

AUTHORSHIP

GLOBAL HEALTH MANAGEMENT JOURNAL (GMHJ) adopts authorship policy as recommended by International Journal of Medical Editors (IJME) as follow:

- 1) Substantial contributions to the conception or design of the work; or the acquisition, analysis or interpretation of data for the work
- 2) Drafting the work or revising it critically for important intellectual content
- 3) Final approval of the version to be published
- 4) Agreement to be accountable for all aspects of the work in ensuring that questions related to the accuracy or integrity of any part of the work are appropriately investigated and resolved.

A written statement outlining each author's contribution must be submitted with each manuscript and can be uploaded via GMHJ's online journal management system. Individuals or organizations who have contributed to the manuscript but who do not meet all of the authorship criteria should be listed in the paper's Acknowledgements.

An example is below:

AB was responsible for the design, drafting, analysis of data, and editing of the manuscript.

CD was responsible for the design, drafting and editing of the manuscript

EF was responsible for reviewing and editing the manuscript and overseeing the data analysis.

GH was responsible for the reviewing and editing the manuscript.

IJ was responsible for providing analytical advice, reviewing and editing the manuscript.

KL was responsible for the reviewing and editing the manuscript and contributing to the design of the manuscript.

The Corresponding Author takes sole responsibility for all communications with the journal throughout the publication process. This includes managing communications between author(s) and journal editor(s), ensuring the completeness and accuracy of all content provided to the journal, such as article proofs, journal forms, ethics committee approval, authorship statement and each author's Conflict of Interests Declaration. The corresponding author should be available throughout the submission and peer review process to respond to editorial queries in a timely way and should be available after publication to respond to critiques of the work and cooperate with any requests from the journal for data or additional information after publication.

Requests to remove or add authors after manuscript submission or publication must be accompanied by signed agreement from all authors before manuscript being published.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Authors should not signing any agreement with sponsors that interfere with authors' access to all of the study's data or that interfere with their ability to analyze and interpret the data and to prepare and publish manuscripts independently. Each author must declare their potential conflict of interest as a result of financial relationships (such as employment, consultancies, stock ownership, honoraria, patents, and paid expert testimony) by signing author's Conflict of Interests Declaration.

EDITORIAL POLICY

PEER REVIEW

All manuscripts submitted to GLOBAL HEALTH MANAGEMENT JOURNAL (GMHJ) will undergo a double-blind peer review where both reviewer's and author's identity will not be disclosed.

EDITORIAL POLICY

CONFIDENTIALITY

All manuscripts submitted to GLOBAL HEALTH MANAGEMENT JOURNAL (GMHJ) will be kept its confidentiality. However, manuscripts may be shared internally with Editorial Board members, Associate Editors and other editors at the journal as part of our editorial and production processes. The journal will not disclose the identity of peer reviewers and reviewers should not disclose their identity without first consulting the journal. Rejected manuscripts will be deleted after rejection.

COPYRIGHT AND OPEN ACCESS

Author(s) must sign a copy right transfer agreement prior the publication. GLOBAL HEALTH MANAGEMENT JOURNAL (GMHJ) is an open access following Creative Commons License Deed – Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International (CC BY-NC-SA 4.0) which allow users to copy and redistribute the material in any medium or format with one condition--appropriate credit is given to the journal.